Forest Hills Coal Fire—Huge clouds of smoke billow from the coal pocket of the Metropolitan Coal Co. on Washington st., Forest Hills, where flames today caused $150,000 damage during a general alarm fire. Three firemen were hospitalized and several others suffered minor injuries while fighting the fire, which forced suspension of Boston Elevated and New Haven R. Henlein Cheats Firing Squad by Suicide in Jail

WITH U. S. THIRD ARMY IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA, May 11 (AP)—Konrad Henlein, who before the war delivered the Sudetenland to Hitler, died yesterday, a suicide in a war prison camp.

It was reported at an American corps headquarters Henlein slashed his wrists with a razor blade concealed under adhesive tape in a cigarette case.

By taking his own life Henlein escaped execution by the Czechoslovak government. He had been sentenced to death in absentia by a Czechoslovak court in 1938.

Allied military authorities said Henlein gave Hitler an indirect service which enabled the German army to speedily break the Maginot line. The Maginot line was built along specifications used in the Czechoslovak fortifications in the Sudeten mountains. After annexation of the Sudetenland, German artillerymen and experts in specialized weapons practiced many months developing a casemate-smashing technique.

Okinawa Drive Gains Ground

By AL DOPKING

GUAM, May 11 (AP)—A determined U. S. offensive against Naha, Okinawa's capital city, was shaping up today after the Sixth Marine Division bridged the Asa river estuary.

Two Japanese attempted to blow up the span by covering themselves with explosives and detonating the charges as they plunged onto the bridge. Their act served only to damage the span and delay the crossing.

Still another wide, winding river—the Asato—stands before Naha as a natural barrier.

Elsewhere along the southern front, Marines and doughboys made limited gains yesterday, Adm. Nimitz's communique reported today. He announced these other developments:

Japanese casualties through Wednesday total 38,857 killed, an increase of 2,322 in two days.

Sixty-nine Japanese were killed on Iwo Jima last week and 57 captured for total casualties there of 23,244 killed and 1038 captured.

U. S. Bombers Blast Jap Hunan Base

CHUNGKING, May 11 (AP)—Chinese troops pushing back the Japs on the 78-mile Hunan Province front are fighting a "prelude to a general Chinese counter-offensive," an Army spokesman said tonight.

An American Army communique described Paoching, reinforcement and supply funnel for the Japanese on the Hunan front, as a "burned out city" following attacks Wednesday by 100 U. S. 14th Air Force bombers and fighters. The Americans dropped 100 tons of bombs.

Earlier a spokesman said Chinese troops, supported by American planes, surrounded a large number of Japs 40 miles west of Paoching. The smashed Jap drive had been directed at the American air base in Chikiang.

Yanks on Mindanao Gain in Terrific Fight

MANILA, May 11 (AP)—Infantrymen of Maj. Gen. Woodruff's 24th Division were reported today making steady gains against stiff resistance in a mounting battle with Japan's Mindanao island garrison near Davao.

The battleground was a triangular area between the Talomo and Davao rivers, northwest of Davao. The Yanks, who crossed the Talomo Tuesday, were faced with the tough job of rooting the enemy out of elaborate cave defenses.

On Tarakan Island, Borneo, Australian and Dutch troops reached the edge of the Djocata oil field, second largest on the island, against slight opposition.

Jap Says Surrender Near

MANILA, May 11 (AP)—A lieutenant commander in the Japanese navy who surrendered recently to the Sixth Division troops said today he believed Japan would surrender in the near future.

The officer, whose name was withheld, expressed belief the surrender would follow sustained saturation bombing of Jap metropolitan areas and industrial centers.

First Poles Off To Settle in Oder's Frankfurt

By the Associated Press

The first group of Poles to be settled in Frankfurt-on-the-Oder will leave the Polish city of Lodz within a few days, the Lublin radio announced today.

This first group of more than 1000 Poles "will assume posts in the administration of local government, commerce, industry, handicrafts and communications," it said. The move was reported undertaken "in connection with resettlement of people in ancient Slav lands that now return to the mother country." Frankfurt has been a German city.

The Lublin radio is operated by the Soviet-recognized Polish regime. OWI reported the broadcast.

Nazis Flee To U. S. Lines

LONDON, May 11 (AP)—Die-hard Nazi fanatics who fought on in Czechoslovakia in defiance of German unconditional surrender were reported in headlong flight toward American lines today as a vast pincer by three Soviet armies threatened momentarily to envelop them.

Command chief said nearly a dozen aerial mining missions had been carried out by Superforts, each equipped with approximately 10 tons of mines.

Brig. Gen. John H. Davies of Piedmont, Cal., commands the Tinian-based B-29s mining enemy waters. Operations have not been confined to the areas mentioned today. Operations have not been confined to the areas mentioned today. Mines have been dropped in all major ports of Japan, and particularly in Shimonoseki strait between Kyushu and Honshu islands.

Gen. Davies led the first mission March 27 in the first attempt in military history to impose a complete mine blockade on a maritime nation.

Objective of the mine-laying campaign is to supplement the thunderous step-up in bombing of Japan's home islands by other Superforts. Both operations can aid in destruction of Japan's productive power.

It is estimated 75 per cent of all Jap transportation is waterborne.

Mines also were strewn in strategic areas to support the invasion of Okinawa. All missions were flown at night, generally under 10,000 feet.

Parachutes from six to nine feet in diameter were automatically released from Navy-made mines on contact with the water. Lemay explained an aerial mining campaign must be maintained to be successful. Aerial mines explode when a ship comes near enough to activate firing mechanism. Contact is not necessary.

The mine blockade, however, remains effectively only as long as it takes for the Japs to clear a channel.

A constant check on minefields is maintained by air reconnaissance.

Japan is depending on sea transportation because railroad and motor facilities are strained. The destruction of raw material stockpiles by incendiary and demolition bombing raids requires transfer of raw materials, and sea travel is the enemy's alternative.

B-29's Hit Japanese Bases 3 More Blows

GUAM, May 11 (AP)—Superfortresses bombed Japan's homeland three times today, striking at three industrial centers and three airfields on Kyushu and Honshu islands in a swift follow-up to yesterday's 400-plane raid.

In the heaviest attack 100 to 150 B-29s attacked the big Kawasaki seaplane plant on Honshu, between Kobe and Osaka, as a smaller fleet blasted the Oita and Saiki airfields on Kyushu.

In yesterday's 400-plane attack not a plane was lost.

Goering's Alibi: Hitler's Fault

By HOWARD COWAN

AUGSBURG, Germany May 11 (AP)—Perspiring and uneasy, Hermann Goering spoke bitterly of Hitler today and asserted he had advised his leader against attacking Russia.

He told war correspondents during an hour-long interview: "When Hitler decided to attack Russia, I myself referred him to his Mein Kampf, where he said that to fight a war on two fronts was dangerous. I was convinced Russia was not going to attack—maybe Finland but not Germany."

The shifty-eyed Reichsmarshal raised his voice as he spoke.

2000 Planes To Hit Japs In Single Raid

By HENRY B. JAMESON

LONDON, May 11 (AP)—Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle, commander of the U. S. Eighth Air Force who led the first air raid on Tokyo, predicted today that 2000-plane raids would be made soon on Japan. He indicated that large numbers of Flying Fortresses and Liberators used in battering Germany would be shifted to the Pacific, where they would be used in the role of medium bombers, augmenting operations of the Superfortresses.

Doolittle disclosed the present bomber strength of the Eighth Air Force exceeded 2400 Liberators and Fortresses.

"That number of operational planes on airfields today does not include a large number of others in repair depots, and new planes in reserve pools," he said.

Doolittle envisaged robot aircraft and rockets replacing crew-manned planes if there is another war.

TRUMAN WAITS MA ON MOTHER'S DAY

PRESIDENT TRUMAN WITH HIS MOTHER
She's Going to Washington for Mother's Day

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—The White House bustled with preparation today for the arrival of President Truman's mother.

Mrs. Martha Truman, alert and cheerful for all her 92 years, plans to fly here from Independence, Mo., to spend Mother's Day with her distinguished son.

The White House said today that the President would go to the airport to meet his mother who is on her first flight, accompanied by her daughter Mary and Capt. James K. Vardaman, the President's naval aide.

They will add their prayers to those of millions of other Americans Sunday in thanking for victory in Europe and in hope for early peace in the Pacific, as proclaimed for the day by the President.

Subsequently, he arranged for his own mother to fly here for their first meeting since Mr. Truman took over the nation's leadership April 12.

Mr. Truman calls his mother "Mamma" and beams happily when she tells him to "be good" or reminds friends he once plowed the straightest row of any farm boy in Missouri.

Army Discharges Start Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, May 11 (INS)—First veterans to be discharged under the Army's point system of demobilization, will be returned to civilian life tomorrow, the War Department announced today. The initial group totals 2500, the announcement said. They are being drawn from among the soldiers with long overseas service in all theaters and brought back to the United States for rest and recuperation prior to V-E Day.

All will have high point scores based on length of Army service, time spent overseas, combat awards and battle participation stars and parenthood.

It was announced today that, in computing points, overseas service begins on the date of leaving a port of embarkation and ends on the date of return to a port in the United States or, in the case of soldiers who live outside the U. S., to a port in the territory or possession in which they reside.

The credit will be computed for overseas service on and after Sept. 16, 1940, and 15 days or more will count as a month.

Three men will be discharged from separation centers now operating at Camp Atterbury, Ind.; Camp Beale, Cal.; Ft. Bliss, Tex.; Ft. Bragg, N. C.; Camp Chaffee, Ark.; Ft. Devens, Mass.; Ft. Dix, N. J.; Ft. Douglas, Utah; Jefferson Barracks, Mo.; Ft. Leavenworth, Kans.; Ft. Logan, Colo.; Ft. Lewis, Wash.; Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.; Ft. McPherson, Ga.; Camp Shelby, Miss.; Ft. Sheridan, Ill.; and Ft. Vets to Swap Jobs With Deferred Men

Under the Army's new Red, White and Blue Point system to determine what soldiers are eligible to discharge, thousands of returning war veterans will literally swap jobs with young civilian farm and factory workers now draft deferred because their occupations are classed as essential.

This was disclosed today when Col. Ralph M. Smith, state director of selective service, announced that men under 30 must anticipate service in the armed forces regardless of their present jobs in vital war industries or agriculture.

"It is only fair that men who have been deferred from serving their country in the armed forces, due to the pressing need for their services in industry or agriculture, now have the honor of serving their country in uniform," Col. Smith said.

He added that deferments granted for occupational necessity will be very few in Massachusetts.

"Even those men who have recently been granted six-months deferments may find them terminated before the expiration of that time as more and more veterans with the necessary skills return to industry and farms," Col. Smith declared.

Col. Smith's announcement is

3 Hurt in Big Coal Fire

Three firemen were hospitalized today and several suffered minor injuries battling a $150,000 general alarm fire which raged out of control for more than two hours today in a huge coal pocket at the Metropolitan Coal Co., in Washington st., Forest Hill.

Thick smoke and flying embers carried from the 300-foot long and 60-foot long structure by strong winds forced suspension of Boston Elevated and New Haven railroad service on both sides of the burning building until the flames were subdued.

Auto traffic along heavily traveled Arborway and in Washington st. also was brought to a complete standstill as all available fire apparatus in the city concentrated in the area.

Ladderman Bernard McTernan, 30, of Weld st., West Roxbury, was the first casualty, suffering head and ear lacerations when he was sprayed with flying glass.

When the flaming structure was shaken by a hot air explosion, Fireman James R. Allen, 58, of Lonsdale st., Dorchester, suffered possible fractures of the back and arms when he was partly buried under a collapsing wall, and Ladderman Frank Falcone of Ladder 30 suffered a leg injury when he fell 20 feet from a ladder.

All three were treated at City

Hospital

The $150,000 damage figure was set by Fire Chief Samuel Pope, although Charles T. Reardon, president of the company, said the destroyed structure would cost $250,000 to replace and that 1000 tons of coal also had been lost.

Six oil tank cars on a siding near the burning plant were quickly switched out of danger by a New Haven engine.

One hundred Elevated employees, working in an office attached to the Arborway station, were led out of the building when it appeared the fire might spread there. An additional group of 40 Elevated fire-fighters rushed to the scene to protect station property and assist firemen.

They extinguished small fires which broke out when embers struck the station and rack ties, and also assisted firemen, who drove apparatus into the surface platform of the station and attached hose lines to all hydrants to pour additional water on the flaming coal pocket.

The fire apparently was caused by a short circuit in the conveyor apparatus. It was discovered by Michael Donovan of Hyde Park ave., Forest Hills, head yardman.

His shout as the first flame appeared brought Patrick Cavanaugh of Pleasant st., Dorchester, with an extinguisher, and for a time, as other employees joined the fire extinguisher fight, it appeared they would subdue the flames.

But winds of 35 to 40 miles an hour defeated their efforts and they were forced to retreat as the flames, feeding on the dry timber and the gases from the coal, roared through the structure. Second, third and fourth alarms were rung in rapid succession.

3 Hurt in Big Coal Fire

Three firemen were hospitalized today and several suffered minor injuries battling a $150,000 general alarm fire which raged out of control for more than two hours today in a huge coal pocket at the Metropolitan Coal Co., in Washington st., Forest Hill.

Thick smoke and flying embers carried from the 300-foot long and 60-foot high structure by strong winds forced suspension of Boston Elevated and New Haven railroad service on both sides of the burning building until the flames were subdued.

Auto traffic along heavily traveled Arborway and in Washington st. also was brought to a complete standstill as all available fire apparatus in the city concentrated in the area.

Ladderman Bernard McTernan, 30, of Weld st., West Roxbury, was the first casualty, suffering head and ear lacerations when he was sprayed with flying glass.

When the flaming structure was shaken by a hot air explosion, Fireman James R. Allen, 58, of Lonsdale st., Dorchester, suffered possible fractures of the back and arms when he was partly buried under a collapsing wall, and Ladderman Frank Falcone of Ladder 30 suffered a leg injury when he fell 20 feet from a ladder.

All three were treated at City

Hospital

The $150,000 damage figure was set by Fire Chief Samuel Pope, although Charles T. Reardon, president of the company, said the destroyed structure would cost $250,000 to replace and that 1000 tons of coal also had been lost.

Six oil tank cars on a siding near the burning plant were quickly switched out of danger by a New Haven switcher.

One hundred Elevated employees, working in an office attached to the Arborway station, were led out of the building when it appeared the fire might spread there. An additional group of 40 Elevated fire-fighters rushed to the scene to protect station property and assist firemen.

They extinguished small fires which broke out when embers struck the station and rack ties, and also assisted firemen, who drove apparatus into the surface platform of the station and attached hose lines to all hydrants to pour additional water on the flaming coal pocket.

The fire apparently was caused by a short circuit in the conveyor apparatus. It was discovered by Michael Donovan of Hyde Park ave., Forest Hills, head yardman.

His shout as the first flame appeared brought Patrick Cavanaugh of Pleasant st., Dorchester, with an extinguisher, and for a times, as other employees joined the fire extinguisher fight, it appeared they would subdue the flames.

But winds of 35 to 40 miles an hour defeated their efforts and they were forced to retreat as the flames, feeding on the dry timber and the gases from the coal, roared through the structure.

Second, third and fourth alarms were rung in rapid succession.

U. S. Plans Set For Reich Rule

By JOHN A. REICHMANN

WASHINGTON, May 11 (INS)—War Secretary Stimson today set up the machinery with which the United States will help control defeated Germany and make her citizens realize they have lost the war.

Service Troops In Europe First Sent to Pacific

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, May 11 (AP)—Some American troops units already are on their way to French ports, headed for the Pacific war under the redeployment program, it was disclosed today.

First combat troops from Europe, however, are not likely to reach the Pacific theater for six months.

First to go are service troops, needed to prepare for the flow of combat veterans who helped defeat Germany.

Beside service units already on the move, others have been alerted, Brig. Gen. G. S. Eyster, acting deputy chief of staff, said.

Preparations for the shift began last August. Service troops already are trained and mostly will go to the Pacific direct. Combat troops will need retraining and most will go through the United States.

A re-adaptation training command, which will be in charge of a senior experienced battle general, already is in this theater. The name of the general cannot be disclosed. Re-adaptation training will take eight weeks.

Some of Gen. MacArthur's junior officers are expected to come to Europe to help in the work.

Japanese equipment will be brought here for the training program both in France and Germany and American soldiers who already know a lot about fighting will learn about Jap uniforms, equipment and tactics.

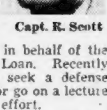

3 Congressional Medal Heroes To Stay in Army

FT. BENNING, Ga., May 11 (AP)—Only two of five Congressional Medal winners here—including T-Sgt. Charles E. (Commando) Kelly—plan to seek discharge from the Army.

Under a recent War Department ruling Congressional Medal winners are eligible for discharge. Kelly said he planned to apply for a discharge after finishing a nation-wide tour in behalf of the Seventh War Loan. Recently married, he will seek a defense job in Pittsburgh or go on a lecture tour for the war effort.

T-Sgt. Homer Wise of Baton Rouge, La., also plans to apply for discharge. The others said:

Lt. Col. Samuel I. Parker of Monroe, N. C.: "I intend to stay in the Army until I think my services are no longer needed."

Lt. Col. Orville Block of Streeterville, N. D.: "I am staying until Japan is beaten."

Capt. Robert S. Scott of Sante Fe, N. M.: "I'll have to give it some thought before I can make a decision."

4—Boston American, May 11

Gen. Clay will be governed through a control council in which each of the four powers will be represented," Stimson said.

"Gen. Eisenhower will represent the United States on the control council of Germany. Each power will administer a zone of Germany under the control of a military commander. The United States zone will be controlled by Gen. Eisenhower."

Lt. Gen. Lucius Clay, previously deputy director of war mobilization and reconversion, will be Eisenhower's deputy.

Establishment is provided for a group control council, divided into 12 divisions paralleling the 12 divisions of the German central government. They are:

MILITARY—Army ground, naval and air forces to deal with German demobilization and disarmament.

TRANSPORT—To regulate all traffic—railways, roads, waterways, port and coastal operations.

ECONOMIC—To deal with food, agriculture, forestry, fuel, mining, price control and rationing, public works and utilities, internal and foreign trade and industry conversion and liquidation and requirements allocations; Germans must learn to feed themselves.

POLITICAL—To deal with foreign affairs, domestic political matters, protecting American interests in Germany and to advise other sections dealing with public information services.

FINANCIAL—To control all public finance and deal with financial institutions, foreign exchange, currency, and accounts and auditors.

REPARATIONS, DELIVERIES AND RESTITUTION—Carry out policies suggested by its title under direction of the control council, handle property control and supervision of monuments, fine arts and archives.

INTERNAL AFFAIRS AND COMMUNICATIONS—Supervise public safety, control civic police forces, public health and safety; postal, telegraph and telephone communications; military communications; civil service and local government, education and religious affairs, elimination of the secret police.

LEGAL—Advise on legal questions the commander and the other divisions, prosecute war criminals and exercise proper controls over Allied military courts.

PRISONERS OF WAR AND DISPLACED PERSONS—To supervise the repatriation of war prisoners and slave laborers in the Reich.

MANPOWER—To handle problems of labor relations and allocations, wages and labor policies, housing and labor information.

INTELLIGENCE—Answerable directly to Clay, will generally supervise the de-Nazification program and will maintain surveillance over all German agencies to assure the elimination of "werewolves" and similar Nazi organizations.

PUBLIC RELATIONS—To issue press credentials, impose censorship "solely on the basis of military security," dissolution of the propaganda ministry and establishment of an unbiased and truthful press and radio system.

HOME FROM THE WARS—Nickie Barresi (left), and his brother Joe, meet in a happy reunion at their Bristol Ave., Saugus home, after three years separation. Joe, with a paratrooper unit in Europe, came home with the Purple Heart, two Presidential Citations and the Combat Infantry Badge. Nickie, a Marine, participated in the campaigns of New Guinea, Guam, and Bougainville.

Day's Best Laughs

Need a Tree?

DENVER, May 11 (AP)—A large and belligerent dog apparently regarded a fire hydrant his personal property today and almost delayed firemen fighting a residential blaze. Fire fighters had to use an emergency tank on a truck until fireman Charles Robinson could chase away the snarling dog with a wrench.

No Tin Gnawers

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11 (AP)—California industry is doing its proud best to put on a pleasant show for the big conference here. Baskets of fruit and local products were distributed to newsmen, including a handsome can of large ripe olives with this placard: "With usual California modesty, we feel that these are the best ripe olives produced on any continent. We hope you enjoy them." But there wasn't a can opener in a carload.

Stake: 108 Lives

NEW YORK, May 11 (AP)—Twelve yellow cats face execution unless a will which supposedly provides lavishly for them turns up in the effects of their deceased mistress. They were the pets of Grace Earle Smith, spinster, one of the first women to practice law here. Her body was found yesterday by police in her Staten Island bungalow where the cats were keeping a death watch.

Way to Get Butter

CHICAGO, May 11 (AP)—The 64 pounds of butter which fell off a truck in front of Mrs. Mary Laverick's store disappeared like magic. Women carted the butter into the store and 50 other women followed to see what was to happen. Someone produced a knife and started dividing the high-point product. After the roll had dwindled to 10 pounds, the knife wielder said "the rest belongs to me," wrapped it up and went home.

NAZI GROUP TO AID SHAEF

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, May 11 (AP)—Four German generals, 10 other officers and 43 soldiers reached SHAEF yesterday to serve as a liaison staff in handling details of surrendering shipping and war materials.

Small Nations Bloc in Drive To Gain Power

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11 (AP)—The United Nations Conference appeared today to be developing a strong bloc of small nations determined to win themselves greater authority over the proposed use of force to prevent future wars.

The issue is coming sharply to the fore in conference committees considering amendments to the Dumbarton Oaks plan. Here are current top developments:

1—Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada told a committee on functions of the security council, which is the exclusive, powerful core of the proposed organization, that any nation whose troops were to be used against an aggressor should be permitted a voice in the council's decision to take forceful action. Mexico and New Zealand endorsed this idea, and Australia and several others are backing the principle.

2—New Zealand suggested that the proposed council be enlarged from 11 member nations, provided under Dumbarton Oaks, to 14 or 15, was debated in the committee on the council yesterday but a decision is delayed pending further study.

3—A Cuban proposition that the security council be enlarged from 11 member nations, provided under Dumbarton Oaks, to 14 or 15, was debated in the committee on the council yesterday but a decision is delayed pending further study.

Vet Sentenced For Girl Attack

HARTFORD, Ct., May 11 (AP)—James Joseph Hughes, Jr., of New Britain, a veteran of action in the South Pacific, was sentenced to a term of from one to five years in State's Prison today by Superior Court Judge James E. Murphy, who found him guilty of rape.

Hughes' counsel, Public Defender Reinhart L. Gideon, said: "Here is a veteran returning without the restraint he should have. He has a call for leniency upon this country."

Hughes told the court he was wounded on New Georgia when a Jap struck him on the forehead with a rifle butt.

Judge Murphy commented "the fact he was in service is no reason we should conclude he is entitled to take such liberties with other men's sisters."

Hughes was accused of having picked up a girl on a street corner, taken her in his car to a secluded spot and attacking her.

London Denies Story Of PW Escape Plot

LONDON, May 11 (AP)—The British War Office stated today there was no truth in a United Press story of an alleged plot by German prisoners of war to stage a mass break and seize control of London last Christmas Eve.

"The story was passed by censorship because there no longer was any security involved, but with a note advising the editor there was no truth in it," a War Office spokesman said.

'Token' Yanks Going to Berlin

PARIS, May 11 (AP)—An Allied token force of British and Americans is being prepared to go to Berlin as soon as arrangements with the Russians have been completed.

There was no indication when the force would leave.

Americans in the token force will be from the U. S. Ninth Army.

Heavy Winds Lash Hub In Wake of N. E. Storm

While other sections of New England dug out from the worst May storm in 75 years, Greater Boston was buffeted today by winds of near-gale force which smashed windows, felled trees and hurled small boats far inshore.

Nearly 100 communities were isolated by the freak storm which blanketed many sections under six to 12 inches of heavy, wet snow, snarling traffic and causing damage to crops unofficially estimated at $1,000,000.

The 50-mile wind which struck this area tossed a small boat onto Sea st., on Hough's Neck, Quincy, and ripped several others from moorings.

Pedestrians escaped injury when the wind smashed windows in a Tremont st. store and a Boylston st., Back Bay, drug store.

Several children playing nearby were imperiled by trees falling in Sharon st., South End; Hollander st., Roxbury; Sparhawk st., Brighton, Beech and Perham sts., West Roxbury, and Euclid st., Mattapan.

Weather bureau officials reported the wind was 45 miles an hour with gusts of more than 50 miles. Plane service north of Boston was suspended until late this afternoon because of the severe storm raging in Maine and New Hampshire.

Hundreds of wires and trees were toppled in northern New England, cutting off telephone and power service to scores of communities.

More than 10,000 telephones were out of service in Maine alone, telephone company officials said. "This is the worst storm in recent years so far as we're concerned," a telephone company spokesman declared. "Most of our lines in Maine are down and all service north of Bangor is cut off."

Emergency crews, recruited from Rhode Island, Boston, and Western Massachusetts, were dispatched in more than 100 trucks to the stricken areas. Nearly 20 tons of wire and other equipment was rushed to New Hampshire and Maine.

A foot of snow was reported in Augusta and 11 inches in Portland. Blustering northeast winds reached 70 miles an hour at Portland in gusts.

W. R. Rhodes, district manager for New England Telephone and Telegraph Co., said 1,000 poles were felled, 45 central offices and 19 connecting companies isolated.

The only means of communication available in northern Maine were the Northeast Airlines radio stations at Presque Isle, Houlton and Bangor.

Ten first message carried over the emergency setup told of a fire at Ft. Kent in which a Bangor & Aroostook Railroad bus and truck were destroyed.

New Hampshire apple growers estimated that 90 per cent of the State's apple crop was ruined by the continued freezing weather.

The soggy snow broke thousands of fruit tree branches in all sections of New England. Bertram L. Tomlinson, Barnstable County agricultural agent, said 25 per cent of the Cape Cod strawberry crop was lost.

Two deaths were reported during the storm. Judith Gage, 8, of Pittsfield, was struck by an auto, and George Plummer of Lynn was killed when his car struck a tree in Gloucester.

The weather bureau predicted clearing and continued cool today, with frost expected tonight in the interior suburbs. Slowly rising temperatures with increasing cloudiness were forecast for Saturday.

$2 Drunk License Hearing Tuesday

The legislative committee on legal affairs announced today it would hold a public hearing on proposals for a $2 annual license fee for liquor drinkers at 10:30 a. m. next Tuesday.

The personal drinking license system was proposed by a special commission on drunkenness appointed by the 1943 legislature. Besides the license system, the commission proposed all liquor bottles be labelled to warn imbibers the contents "may cause drunkenness if taken in excessive quantity."

Bowles Pledges 1942 Prices for Reconversion

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—Price Administrator Chester Bowles today pledged 1942 retail prices for most reconversion commodities.

Outlining OPA's price policies for long-scarce consumer goods, Bowles told a news conference:

"Everything we do in OPA must be directed toward making it possible for American enterprise and skills to produce a record volume of high quality goods at low prices and high wages..."

"Nothing will more surely smother the fires of inflation than an avalanche of civilian goods and services."

Bowles said it is his belief there will be "few instances in which increases in retail prices above 1942 levels will be necessary, and in such instances the size of the increases will be relatively small."

"We must keep prices from getting out of control," he continued, "and we must make certain we avoid the kind of inflation and collapse that took place after the last war."

Baby Locks Self In, Firemen Open

John Goglia, Jr., less than a year old, of Elko st., Brighton, was rescued by firemen today from the bathroom of his home, after he had locked himself in and didn't like it.

His mother, Mrs. Rita M. Goglia, was in the kitchen when she heard the click of the lock and the sound of water running in the tub. Unable to open the door, she called the fire department.

Firemen, hoisting a ladder to the Goglia third floor apartment, found John, Jr., sitting on a hamper, crying loudly, and throwing things into the tub.

Ickes Gets Parker River Refuge Report

The investigation was conducted by department representatives who have no connection with the Fish and Wildlife Service, which established the Essex County refuge.

OPA Suits Name Chicago Night Spots

CHICAGO, May 11 (AP)—Several of Chicago's most fashionable night spots were named today in a group of damage suits filed in Federal Court by the OPA, alleging over-seeing charges on food or drink.

Home after two years service with the victorious troops in Europe, Lt. Mildred L. Luscomb of Atlantic st., South Boston, Army nurse, today obtained an uncontested divorce in Suffolk Probate Court from Harold G. Luscomb, charging cruelty and abuse and gross habits of intoxication.

Her uniform, decorated with campaign ribbons, Lt. Luscomb told Judge Robert G. Wilson, Jr., her husband beat her several times before she went overseas. She said she left him in September, 1941, and about 18 months later he asked her to get a divorce so he could marry someone else.

Pvt. George A. Mason of Boston testified he returned home after 20 months overseas to find his wife, Ruth Briggs Mason of Hudson, an expectant mother. Judge Frederick J. Dillon granted him an uncontested divorce.

LONDON, May 11 (AP)—A spokesman at No. 10 Downing st. today dismissed as "rumors and speculation" reports a meeting of President Truman, Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin was impending.

Children Saved In Home Blast

Two young children were tossed to safety from the second floor piazza of their home to the arms of a neighbor when fire, following a violent explosion of a kitchen burner, swept through a single dwelling in West st., Quincy, today.

Edward Rogers, 31, shipyard worker, was eating breakfast with his wife, Rose, 27, when the blast rocked the house. While he ran to turn in an alarm, his wife ran upstairs and carried their children, James, 4, and Edward, 2, out to the porch.

From the porch she threw each child to a neighbor, Pete Marin, who caught them both and carried them to safety. He also broke the mother's fall when she leaped from the porch, and she was unhurt.

Youth Found Beaten To Death in Hotel

Boy's Plea for Pet Heartbroken by Loss of Dog

By BOBBY BURKE

I lost my dog Rex and I'm writing this to see if anybody has seen him.

If you have, please let me know, because I miss him awful. He's a swell dog and I've had him since he was a pup. He is 3 years old. I am 12.

I guess you'd call Rex part Spitz and I don't know what the rest is. Maybe it's just mongrel but that doesn't matter, he's my pal.

I've looked all over for him since he went Wednesday. I think he followed my mother and got lost. He is mostly white with black spots on his side. He's got a black spot on his chin, too.

His left ear flops over. That makes him look funny when he's listening to something.

I go to the sixth grade at St. Andrew's School. I live at 8 Greenwood pk., Dorchester. My telephone number is GENEva 4384.

BLINDFOLD BUYING

... Would you buy a baby carriage without seeing it? That's exactly what Mrs. — did, and so did a second customer who overheard a telephone conversation. Believe it or not, as Mr. Ripley would say! The other day the telephone in our infants' section rang, and the buyer was called to the phone. "Have you any strollers?" was the query. Mrs. Geary, who sells nearly half a million bargains annually, replied, "Yes, I think there are one or two in our Cambridge warehouse, but we don't fill telephone orders!" The woman on the other end of the phone was desperate, telling us she had looked everywhere and couldn't find one. "If I send you the money right away will you have one delivered to me—how much is it?" Our buyer replied: "$11.95 and $10 for delivery—but don't you want to see it?" A little bit surprised at first at the excited customer, Mrs. Geary couldn't believe that someone would buy a baby carriage without seeing it—but imagine her surprise when the customer added: "Be sure and send it right away—anything that comes from Filene's Basement is all right!" Hardly had Mrs. Geary hung up the telephone, when another customer standing on the floor overhearing the conversation said: "I'll take one, (meaning a stroller) too!" When—that's some reputation, isn't it—bargains to good folk don't hesitate to buy them literally blindfolded. Now two young suburban housewives are getting their daily spring airing in Filene's Basement wicker, metal reinforced strollers, and their "moms" bought these miniature chariots sight unseen because they know that Filene's Basement, the store that sells millions of bargains annually, sells only dependable bargains, and that every bargain is guaranteed.

Veterans' Friend

By JAMES F. McENANEY

Q—What is the pay for a captain, married, overseas and in the service four years? T. H. L., Providence.

A—Base pay $290. In addition he receives $132 subsistence and rental, 10 per cent for overseas duty, 5 per cent longevity; total $362.

Q—I would like to know if a soldier's government insurance has to be made out to a relative or, if he wishes, is he permitted to name a girl friend beneficiary? F. M., Medford.

A—No. Must name either parent, brother or sister, in this case where he is not married.

Q—I am a member of the Coast Guard. A year ago my brother died leaving three small children. Since we have no children, my wife is caring for the youngsters. Would I be entitled to apply for allotments in this case, and would payments be retroactive to the time I took them into my home? E. L. K., Boston.

A—If you have accepted the youngsters as part of your household and are bringing them up, you may apply for the family allowance. Will not be retroactive, however.

Q—My sister receives her monthly allotment check from the government, but she hasn't cashed any as yet. Are these checks good for an indefinite period or is there a time limit? W. F. M., Raynham.

A—Urge your sister to cash these checks when received. It causes undue bookkeeping when they are withheld for payment. There is a time limit. Then it is really difficult to get re-issued.

Q—At the age of 15 I registered for Selective Service, giving my age as 18. However, I was drafted into the Navy and shortly afterward discharged under unsatisfactory conditions, not recommended for re-enlistment. Recently I reached my 18th birthday. Do you suggest that I again register? W. C., Newport, R. I.

A—Yes, under the law you should register. It is a matter for the draft board to settle whether or not you will be sent up for induction. The Navy, however, will not accept you under that type of discharge, but possibly the Army will.

Q—My son was wounded in action in Africa and was awarded the Purple Heart. He sent it home, but it was never received. Since then he was awarded an Oak Leaf Cluster which I received. I would like to know if it is possible to receive another medal to replace the lost one? Mrs. R. Q., Amesbury.

A—That is a matter you will have to take up with the Adjutant General, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C. Suggest you write that office and explain above

Pastor Loses Suit to Paper

Damages of $100 were awarded to the Wakefield Item today by Judge Frederic B. Greenhalge in Middlesex Superior Court in its $10,000 action against the Rev. Leroy Congdon, pastor of the Wakefield Congregational Church.

The suit had alleged the pastor circulated a report the newspaper's managing editor, Gardner Campbell, had stated he "intended to drive the Jews off Main st. by (or in) 1944" in a talk to the Men's Club of the church.

Campbell denied making such a statement and the newspaper contended five Jewish merchants had discontinued advertising in the paper with a consequent loss of revenue as a result of the report by the pastor.

Judge Greenhalge ruled only general damages could be maintained and the pastor was not responsible for loss of income by the paper.

Congress Group to Hear Sister Kenny

By DAVID SENTNER

Boston Evening American Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON, May 11—Rep. O'Toole (D.) of New York, introduced a House resolution calling for a memorial to Franklin Delano Roosevelt in the form of a national institute to study and treat infantile paralysis, which he hopes to have supervised by Sister Elizabeth Kenny.

The measure also acted as a parliamentary device for the inviting of Sister Kenny before a Congressional committee.

Rep. Sabath (D.) of Illinois, chairman of the House rules committee, previously had cancelled the plan to hear the testimony of the nurse regarding interference of certain medical groups with her famous treatment for infantile paralysis on the grounds such controversial matters were outside the province of his committee.

O'Toole's resolution was referred to the House library committee of which he is chairman.

O'Toole announced he would immediately invite Sister Kenny, Dr. Morris Fishbein and other leading figures in the medical world to appear before his committee.

"Through their testimony, we will be able to get expert guidance on the polio situation and have an opportunity to find out the advanced treatments and approved therapy with which to combat the disease," he said.

By JEAN ROSS
CHICAGO, May 11 (INS)—
Mrs. Helen Goad, who found her-when her first husband came back from the dead, was on her way home to Portsmouth, O., today.

hoping her first husband would forgive her.
"Even if he doesn't want me there can be no other man," she said quietly. "The hardest part of all this is that at the one time in his life when Harold needs me

most, I cannot be at his side."
Lt. Goad, a flier, was found alive in a hospital when the British retook Rangoon last week.
Mrs. Goad married Ens. Robert McDowell last December. She said Goad, who was reported officially killed in action Oct. 14, 1943, had told her to remarry if he died.

"Ours was a perfect marriage and any woman who had had such an understanding wants it again," she said today.

She has written Ens. McDowtelling him she wants their marriage annulled.

"I have written both men the truth about my feelings and I am awaiting their replies," she said.
She met McDowell of Saugreville, Mo., in Miami, Fla., she said.
"He was a very good looking, generous and care-free. It was a whirlwind courtship, but people are wrong to say I married for security. I married for feeling and love and understanding."

For weeks after the reported death of Lt. Goad, she clung to the hope he was alive.

"I wrote him every night for a month," she said. "Finally I be-war front has caused military requisitions for V-board to jump from 70,000 tons in January to 130,000 tons this month, John T. Kiley, regional WPB director of salvage declared in emphasizing the need for increased waste paper salvage.

"We are reminded again," Kiley said, "that unprecedented efforts must be made to salvage waste paper. The other day our paper salvage chairmen were informed that V-E Day did not mean that the waste paper salvage job was even half done."

"Now that the military supply lines are practically tripled in length and requisitions for paper products have leaped nearly 100 per cent. I believe they can see why the end of the war in Europe means more intense paper salvage effort rather than less."

Garden Needs Daily Care If High Yield Is to Be Had

By FOSTER H. WEISS

Head, Vegetable Gardening Dept., Norfolk County Agricultural School, and Director of the Daily News-American-Herald's Advisory Investigation Garden on Boston Common.

Having visited a number of community Victory gardens that were recently planted, I have noticed that there are many gardeners who may be classed as week-end gardeners who do not consider it necessary to attend the garden during the week.

This is a mistake that can lead to trouble. Crops that break through the ground can be given a lot of help by immediate hoeing to loosen the surface crust. Weeds that are given a week's start are much harder to eliminate, and a delay of two or three days in insect control may prove fatal to the crop.

For these reasons, let me encourage gardeners to check their plots as often as possible if they expect to obtain high yields.

In selecting carrot varieties it is well to keep in mind that some varieties have more food value than others. In general the small high-colored, half-long types will work best in small home gardens. If you have not already bought your seed let me suggest the following varieties: 1—Chantenay, 2—Nantes or Coreless, 3—Tender-sweet.

For those small gardeners who cannot buy animal manures but want to add an organic material to the soil it is possible to use commercial dried manures. These manures if applied at the rate of about 20 pounds per 100 sq. ft. will give results similar to an average application of regular animal manure. Check analysis on bag to see if phosphate needs to be added. Keep seed potatoes in the coolest part of the cellar so as to retard sprouting. If spread out and exposed to light it will check stretching of sprouts.

WHEN FOOD DISAGREES

is good for that"*

Next time your dinner doesn't set well, and you feel sick and miserable, let soothing PEPTO-BISMOL help you. Relieves heartburn, sour, upset stomach—helps retard gas formation and simple diarrhea. Ask your druggist for PEPTO-BISMOL when your stomach is upset.

came as Massachusetts mothers, wives, children and sweethearts of soldiers serving all over the world were busy computing the number of points their loved ones had scored toward Army discharge.

A chart, detailing these points, and making it easy to compute the credits of individual soldiers, accompanies this article.

In a random survey conducted by the Boston Evening American among relatives of Boston servicemen, it was discovered that, based on length of service and overseas duty alone, original members of one entire regiment, comprised mainly of Massachusetts men, are now eligible for return to civilian life.

Sgt. L. E. Pierce Has 105 Points S-Sgt. A. Johnson Has 97 Points Cpl. Benjamin Cupp Has 97 Points Cpl. E. L. Kohorst Has 120 Points

This is the famed 182d, composed of National Guard members and early enlistees, now in the Philippines after serving in the Pacific for 39 months. Most of them have been in service for approximately 50 months.

Godfrey May Lead In N. E. Point Score

"Points! Points! Points! Has my boy got enough points?"

This was the anxious query today in thousands of Greater Boston homes as kin of servicemen hastily computed the chances of their boys to be among the first to return to civilian life under the Army's "Going Home System."

A survey conducted by the Boston Evening American among relatives of men overseas disclosed that the highest point holder in New England may well be Capt. John T. Godfrey of Edgewood, R. I., this section's leading air ace. He has amassed a total of 141 points. Forty-four for length of service, 32 for duty overseas, five for the Silver Star, five for the Purple Heart, 35 for the DFC with six clusters and 20 for the Air Medal and three clusters.

Pvt. Adrian Boudreau, of Mystic Valley pkwy., Medford, a 24-year-old overseas veteran now on duty at the Army Base here, announced that he would apply for discharge on the basis of points he has received. They total 99. With 51 months in service, 33 of them spent in the Pacific, Pvt. Boudreau holds two battle stars and a naval citation to make up more than enough credits to entitle him to discharge.

Among those anxiously computing service records today was Mrs. Josephine L. LoPresti, 28, of Main st., Saugus, and her children, Janice, 9, and Camille, 6. Even Robert, 3, was doing his bit to help.

Pvt. Joseph LoPresti, the husband and father, was one of the first married men in Saugus to enter the Army. He has been overseas for 19 months. He's now in Germany with the Seventh Army, and has taken part in several major battles.

PFC William J. Coursey, of Taft st., Medford, who enlisted when he was 16, has amassed a total of 89

Sweden Shoos Out 4000 Nazi Refugees

STOCKHOLM, May 11 (AP)—Sweden experienced a German "invasion" yesterday when more than 4000 German soldiers and civilians, fleeing from Russian forces in their homeland, landed at various points in south Sweden, Swedish press reports said. All the Germans were sent on their way by Swedish authorities. Most of them set out for Denmark, although some were quoted

Ask Vinson Lift Convention Ban

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—Rep. Case (R.) of South Dakota said today if the Kentucky Derby can be run again in wartime, then church and patriotic organizations should be able to hold conventions.

In a letter to War Mobilizer Fred M. Vinson, Case asked Vinson to "kindly direct" lifting the bans on regular church conventions and conferences, regular conventions of patriotic organizations and regular conventions of fraternal organizations.

Case said holding of conventions in South Dakota of all the organizations he listed "will not equal the total (travel) demand of one major track event, like Pimlico or the Kentucky Derby."

Athletic Program For GIs in Europe

PARIS, May 11 (AP)—A vast athletic program, planned for U. S. troops in Europe long before V-E Day, is getting under way. Thousands of men will participate in athletics, which, along with a thorough education program, will to a large extent replace military training for men awaiting shipment to the United States for demobilization or transfer to other theaters. Competition is planned in 22 different sports.

FENUGREEK TEA

FENUGREEK TEA IS A NATURAL HERB!
FENUGREEK is a natural herb that has given results to many when other methods seemingly failed. It has often been said that FENUGREEK TEA is "A Cup of Good Health from the Good Earth."

1. A cup of this very pleasant tea is taken before meals (and upon retiring). The mucus with the food in one's stomach, thus helping to absorb by solvency, the poisons that may sometimes foster stomach troubles. It thus often acts quickly to help relieve the pain, acid-indigestion, sourness and belching.

2. Headaches, backaches, and that tired-out feeling are often caused by toxic poisons and poisons of impurities in the intestinal tract. FENUGREEK TEA helps flush out impurities which may have been inside you a long time. By helping to dissolve excess mucus, it can help make your digestive organs feel sweet and clean. Try it today.

3. Being a liquid mucus-solvent, FENUGREEK TEA naturally tends to flush out thick stagnant bile and also to moisten lining of intestines. If you are constipated: Try it half hour before breakfast. While not a laxative, the may help induce intestinal flushing.

4. If your physician has placed you on an ulcer or colitis diet, you'll enjoy the soothing effects of FENUGREEK TEA.

5. Treat out this advertisement as a reminder to get Leland Roder's FENUGREEK TEA. Only 50¢ a box or $1.50 for the Economy Size, containing four times as much. (Add 10¢ for mail orders). Sold only by:

OUR CIVILIZATION

THE ENDOWMENT of a fellowship and scholarship in American CIVILIZATION studies of the University of Maryland by the Baltimore News-Post and Sunday American is the most important and vital step in the educational field that this country has made in many years.

Note that we have capitalized the word "CIVILIZATION."

The civilization of a country is something distinct from the history of a country.

We are making great and necessary strides in enforcing the study of American History in our public educational institutions.

But the movement approved by the News-Post and Sunday American of Baltimore digs deeper than the teaching of mere formal history.

It should reveal in studies of our civilization the very soul and core of our history and why our civilization must be preserved if we are not to turn the clock of our evolution backward to the night of Russo-German state slavery.

Our civilization sprang from the belief—fervently and passionately held by the founding fathers—that the LIBERTY OF THE INDIVIDUAL was the pivot of human values and that the state—or the government—was merely a people's tool for guarding, guaranteeing and furthering a variety of individuals and their reasonable desires and wills.

This doctrine was something new in the world because it was—and IS—the opposite of European and Asiatic robotism and state-idolatry.

American civilization means all that and a great deal more.

THE EXPOSITION and inculcation of American "civilization studies," as begun in the University of Maryland, is not a matter of mere days and dates.

It will not tell us the date on which Washington crossed the Delaware or Lee surrendered to Grant.

It will tell us that our civilization (the first of its kind in the world) means:

1—The respect of man for man no matter what our political or religious differences.

2—The flow of every freedom-giving line of our Bill of Rights into every legislative and judicial act of our government.

3—The unswerving devotion to the doctrine that except in cases of invasion the civil law shall be paramount to the military law.

4—The eternal watch and ward on all men who occupy public positions so that we shall remain a COUNTRY OF LAWS and not of bureaucratic ukases and personal decrees.

That, in fact, is the very essence of any civilization—that people-made law is superior to man-made "directives."

5—American civilization, if it is to be preserved, must ask this vital question of every law that is passed by any of our legislative bodies:

"Not what does this law give me, but WHAT DOES THIS LAW TAKE AWAY FROM ME?"

TOO MANY LAWS in our country are passed wearing the mask of philanthropy when their secret purpose is the complete absorption of the individual and his rights into the breast of the moloch of growing Totalitarianism.

It is on that rock of eternal vigilance that our civilization is founded.

From that civilization—rooted in the souls of Franklin, Washington, Jefferson, Paine, Madison and so many others of the founding fathers—flows our history, and not vice versa.

Therefore we say again that the Hearst endowment of a fellowship and scholarship in AMERICAN CIVILIZATION STUDIES is a new, a living breath breathed into the too often dead and pedantic historical studies in our educational institutions.

For our history will always go on.

SO THE BIG FOUR at the San Francisco Conference met in a penthouse atop the Fairmont Hotel! This gave them the opportunity of gazing on one of the most thrilling views in the world; that of San Francisco Bay. Some people are most moved by views of mountains, valleys, rivers, deserts and oceans, but I get my biggest thrills in getting high up in a hotel or skyscraper and looking down at a great city with a beautiful and busy harbor. Another inspiring view is that of New York harbor from the Marine roof of the Hotel Bossert in Brooklyn. Still another is the view of Puget Sound from the top of the Olympic Hotel in Seattle.

QUERIES FROM CLIENTS: Q—Have you the audacity to claim Coney Island clam chowder is a better dish than Philadelphia clam chowder? A—I certainly have. But don't get me wrong. The Philadelphia clam chowder served at Book-binder's Restaurant in the Quaker City is almost as good as Coney Island clam chowder! Q—What is the lucky day for the Cancer born (June 21 to July 22)? A—Stargazers say it is Monday. However, they also say Sunday is the lucky day for Leo (July 23-Aug. 23). I'm a Leo. One Sunday I went to the old Tiajuana track in Mexico and didn't have a winner in 14 races.

PASSING BY: Phyllis Haver Seman. Once a Mack Sennett bathing beauty. That was about the time Gloria Swanson was being co-starred in two reel comedies with a Great Dane dog named Teddy. Phyllis was recently divorced in a trial lasting eight minutes. The Reno record for speedy divorce trials is three minutes...

Hildegard

"Hildegard" Loretta Sell. The energetically effervescent chanteuse. She was born in New Holstein, Wis., where her papa ran a delicatessen store. Miss Sell owes a lot to her manager, Anna Szesko. It was Anna who suggested the use in billing of the single name, "Hildegard." It turned out to be a million-dollar idea.

DESCRIPTION of heroine in a story I was reading said she was wearing "an amusing hat." What is "an amusing hat"? Who is it supposed to amuse? Some of the headgear the females are currently featuring might well be called "hilarious hats." ... "I remember when Irene Dunne was your favorite film actress," writes a Pittsburgher. She still is. Did you see her in "The White Cliffs of Dover"?

MONUMENTS: U. S. Army sergeant wants to know in what town there is a monument to the comic strip character, Popeye. This monument is in Crystal City, Tex., in the heart of the peach-growing section. Salinas, Cal., great lettuce growing center, should put up a monument to the man who first thought of the idea of putting lettuce in ham sandwiches.

DANCING: Suppose a girl tries to do the leading when you are dancing with her. That's a bad sign. She will be hard to handle as a wife. If she keeps on talking while dancing that's not a good sign either. She may develop into a nagging wife. However, if she cuddles up to you, closes her eyes and maintains a dreamy silence while dancing, that's very good. Marry the girl and you'll probably be happy ever after. This comment is from our Horses & Women file, No. 456D.

SIDEGLIGHTS: Drama scribe says: "Another of Ziegfeld's discoveries was Ina Claire, whom he found in the back row of the chorus." That's wrong. Ina Claire was the star of the musical hit, "The Quaker Girl," before she appeared in the Ziegfeld Follies of 1915. I don't believe Ina was ever a chorus girl. She made her stage debut in vaudeville... Mrs. Fred J. Wilson of Chicago says her mother was 38 years old when she celebrated her 25th wedding anniversary. But Mrs. Wilson, while a loving and admiring daughter, is not so good as a reporter. She does not tell me her mother's name.

FAIR ENOUGH

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11—"Yesterday is yesterday," he said, "but today is today and tomorrow is tomorrow," a three ply platitude which might send us off to an inauspicious start unless I hurry to explain that Roger Lapham, the Mayor of San Francisco, and a capitalist who licked the rowdy boss unioners at the polls, was expressing a willingness to forget the past and a hope for the future.

One night during the long waterfront strike, Lapham went down to speak to the strikers as representative of the waterfront employers. They had invited the enemy to send one of their number to state their side of the case.

Mr. Lapham was not the only one who was willing to face them but there were others in the group who said it would do no good because anyone who did appear would be driven from the platform.

"They booted me once or twice," he said, "but I figured that, having invited me, they would have to let me speak my piece. And they did, too. They policed their own meeting and gave me a very courteous hearing, and a big hand."

MR. LAPHAM did have a hidden ace. He was welcomed by John Dore, the Mayor of Seattle, an old Harvard classmate who had known him as a member of the freshman debating team and one who could handle himself well in controversy. Dore was attorney for Dave Beck of Seattle, the agent of old Dan Tobin, president of the International Union of the Teamsters.

So the atmosphere was not entirely bitter and Lapham came off with honor for his courage in confronting a crowd aroused to dangerous possibilities for the reasonable dignity of his presentation. Mrs. Lapham went with him.

Since then, under the pressure of the war, the Communists, agitators and others have moderated their revolutionary tactics. After all, Russia is, or was, in it, too, and although Russia was not fighting Japan and the Pacific war therefore has not been an immediate concern of the Communists, American public opinion could be alienated by wanton strikes and too obvious interference with loading and shipping.

Meanwhile, Roger Lapham was drafted for service in Washington on the National Defense Mediation Board, the War Labor Board and the Labor Management Conference and a letter from Franklin D. Roosevelt, acknowledging his fine work was a potent endorsement and an offset to the ancient hatred of the boss unioners when, in November, 1913, he ran as a non-partisan for Mayor.

As an employer, he had stood by his principles in the long and complex hearings and had come to know and respect many of the union representatives. Of John L. Lewis he has said that the president of the United Mine Workers is the shrewdest bargainer on either side.

Nowadays when he has business with the boss unioner of the Pacific coast he is not just coldly polite but humanly affable, looking hopefully to tomorrow and government under law and an end to mob violence contrived by a few.

THE CHANGE in San Francisco is apparent to the naked eye and to the nerves. The city is highly unionized, to be sure, but in Lapham's vote of 91,000 against 58,000 for his nearest opponent in a field of four principal candidates whose total aggregate was 125,000, he received the vote of confidence and hope of many men and women who carried union cards.

The city had learned to know and trust the fairness of a mayor who attended the first Plattsburgh Camp in 1917, fought with the 305th Infantry in France and then at 59, and with no need of the job nor any political ambition, offered to give a great war port a reconstruction administration in time of another great war.

And the union leaders or bosses have learned by experience that his word is good and that he carried over to his office no old grudges but only a desire to make tomorrow a better time than yesterday.

On a table in his office there is a counting device on which the numerals are changed every morning. A few days ago it read "Days gone, 481; days to go, 980."

His first term will be his last. He made that vow when he was a candidate and though the low subterfuge of a draft might be invoked by a people sick of picket lines and street fighting, Mayor Lapham, delighted that he did commit himself, insists with a juvenile grin that a man can't break a promise.

Hollywood Today

By Louella O. Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, May 11—Strange that in all the years Claudette Colbert has been in pictures she has never made a movie for RKO. She came close once when she signed up for "China Seas," but something happened and she and RKO parted before the camera clicked.

Charles Koenner tells me it's all settled now. Claudette checks in on the Melrose ave. lot Aug. 1, when the roll is called for "Thanks, God, I'll Take It from Here."

I bet that tulle never blooms on a theater marquee. However, it was intriguing enough on the unpublished story by Jane Allen and Mae Livings to bait Jesse Lasky and Walter McEwen to buy it for their debut film under the RKO banner.

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND Yankee dollars is the amount Paramount just plunked out for "The Wayfarers," an unpublished novel which will be the Literary Guild selection for July. That, you'll admit, is a lot of money for a first novel. I'm taking Pare's word that 32-year-old Dan Wickenden's book is a powerful drama. It is about a newspaper reporter, befriended by his managing editor and taken into his home, who proves to be an ingrate and wrecks the lives of the three women in the family. Wickenden, himself, is a former newspaper scribe from Grand Rapids.

PAUL HENREID, who hasn't heard from his mother for two years, has just had definite word she is alive in Vienna. Paul, like many of the movie folk with relatives overseas, has been afraid to mention names. Today he told me that he had a letter in February from Max Hallenberg from Sursee, Switzerland saying that his mother is well. That was a great relief to Paul, for the International Red Cross had told him she was seriously ill with pneumonia last year. He is eagerly waiting for an American consulate to be established in Vienna so he can apply for a visitor's visa and bring his mother to this country.

ONE OF THE FIRST cables to arrive in Hollywood from London after V-E Day came to Mrs. Phyllis Daniels from her daughter, Bebe Daniels. "A happy Victory Day and Mother's Day. We'll see you in June," Bebe cabled. That means that Col. Ben Lyon and Mrs. Lyon—Bebe to her friends—will be coming home after many years in London.

I HAVE HEARD that the Morris Company has closed a deal with William Goetz for the services of Jed Harris, Broadway producer. That is interesting because Jed has been on the point of coming to Hollywood for the last 10 years. Every time he has had a good play he has been planning to put it in the movies and now the contracts are all signed for him to work very soon with Nunnally Johnson.

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD COLLECTED AT RAN-

DOM: Cary Grant is dividing his time between Betty Hessel and Kay Williams; Gabriel Pascal cables from Cairo saying he is bringing his completed movie, "Caesar and Cleopatra," here in the fall. Wonder if Vivien Leigh will come to Hollywood now that war in Europe is over; the Sonny Chahis have been married for 20 years, so tomorrow Mary Pickford will give a dinner in their honor. They were married at her house; Hollywood turned out en masse to greet Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Muir at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Jack Bolton, who entertained in their honor. Everyone was there—the Robert Montgomerys, Maureen O'Sullivan, Kay Francis, Judge O'Connor, the Charles Koenners, Frank Freeman, Ilona Massey and some hundred others. The British Consul and Mrs. Livingston said it was the first time they were home sick, when they heard the noise on V-E Day come over the air from London. The Muirs were week-end guests of Sam Morse at Del Monte, and Anthony Eden was also in the party of eight. Eden seems to have made many friends in America, who regard him as one of the greatest and most popular diplomats to have visited this country. Walter Winchell has been working so hard since he landed in town that one of his pals has seen him. He's in constant communication with San Francisco and that, with the column and the radio, makes him a very busy young man.

HUMPHREY BOGART has bought a new house in Kings rd., and that's where he'll take his bride, Lauren Bacall, after they are married; the Milton Berles are adopting a baby. Wonder if she'll imitate Milton as George Jessel's small daughter imitates her Pat. Mrs. Franz Waxman is trying out a six months' separation in New York; George Cukor mailed Isabel Jeans three pairs of artificial eyelashes to wear on the London stage; Cobina Wright, Sr., is introducing Hans Dittshelm to Hollywood; Robert Kane has arrived in London, probably the first of our producers to get in readiness to make films there. WASHINGTON, May 11—I never know whether a thing is news unless I ask somebody, and everybody I asked about this just gave me a strange look. But the day Presidential Adviser Sam Rosenman advised President Truman that Americans would have to go still easier on food, particularly meat—he sent out for five steak sandwiches!

JUDGE ROSENMAN did not get the steak sandwiches—which, presumably, he intended to share with other White House habitués. The near-by delicatessen which he sought to honor with his business, made the oddest report.

It said it did not have any meat at all; not even steak.

YOU READ, I presume, that the Trumans finally moved from their temporary home in Blair House to the White House. And I'll bet you don't know how the correspondents covering the White House found out!

THE JOURNALISTS, a bit irate around the edges, busted in on Press Secretary Jonathan Daniels and demanded to know if it were true the President had moved in.

"Why—yes, now that you mention it," said Daniels, "I believe he has!"

I FEEL it is maybe best all around that Mr. Daniels is leaving the White House soon. I am afraid many of us could not keep on loving him much longer.

A VERY ENTERPRISING young lady named Mary Cavanaugh gathered together five of America's leading military missuses for broadcasting purposes. They were Mrs. Adm. Stark, Mrs. Gen. Spaatz, Mrs. Adm. Kirk, Mrs. Gen. Devers and Mrs. Gen. Bradley.

Miss Cavanaugh was very proud of her round-up and undoubtedly will try to nick NEC for a raise, which is all right with me because I do not care what happens to NEC. She also discovered she had a very interesting assemblage.

It was the first time Mrs. Gen. Bradley had ever been on the air. She was extremely nervous at first but managed to recover her self-possession before it was halfway over and finished up like a veteran. She confided to Miss Cavanaugh that she'd like to try it again.

Mrs. Adm. Stark, an old hand at broadcasting, brought along a box of throat lozenges which she passed around to her co-performers.

Mrs. Adm. Kirk grinned at the other wives and chortled: "Why—this is just like a bunch of mothers glowing over their children—only this time it's our husbands!"

MRS. GENERAL SPAATZ wore a large hat that seemed to find little favor with the photographers. They kept complaining they couldn't see her face. However, she declined to remove it—the hat, I mean.

Throughout the program Mrs. Spaatz kept a package clutched tightly under her arm and refused all offers to "hand it" for her. Finally she burst:

"If you must know, this is a bottle of champagne. I had a drink on D-Day and vowed I would not take another until VE-Day."

"One of my friends remembered my vow—and brought me this gift. And," added the general's lady, sententiously, "I am going right home and drink every bit of it!"

Boston After Dark

EXPERTS ON THE PROBABLE conduct of the Truman administration are unanimous in foretelling that Hollywood and Broadway will lack the influence the twin sirens exerted on the previous administration...

The White House no longer will be a galloping ground for assorted celebrities from the movies or stage who happened to have won the admiration of persons close to the New Deal... Nonetheless, it interests us (and we hope YOU) to report that Harry S. Truman of Missouri (suh!) has a fond spot in his heart for at least one reigning personality of the world of make-believe.

THE PERSONALITY is Bob Hope... By sheer accident, your reporter, in a comfortable leather chair in the Fox and Hounds cocktail lounge last night in unwitting juxtaposition to a similar chair occupied by Miss Jane Wyman of the movies learned that the President has ordered a "command performance"—first (and mayhap the last) of his Washington rule... The Big Boss has requested that Bob Hope make a personal appearance in Springfield, Missouri on May 21... And Bob has consented... He has done more than that.

TO MAKE the event as glittering as possible, Mr. Hope has asked USO-Camp Shows to route a caravan of other movie stars comprising the inimitable Ritz Brothers and the piquant, chic, charming, gracious, considerate, vivacious, intelligent, alluring and modest Jane Wyman to Springfield, Missouri, so that the caravan will be able to appear with Mr. Hope on the night of May 21.

WE WERE NOT acting as an interloper when Miss Wyman confided the intriguing news of the President's recognition that major-league entertainment and loyalty to his home state might be merged happily within a fortnight of the great day when the bright lights went on again in Europe, and in part of Boston... Jane was chatting with friends, and she was not talking off the record...

SO WE REALLY WERENT intruding on Jane's discussion... The fact was that Miss Wyman had vanished toward the nether reaches of the Fox and Hounds which the public knows as the Rumba Casino (as we thought!) And the hour being close to midnight, the time when the short-lived Byrnes curfew once sounded the knell of a closing business day for chatter columns, yours affectionately had dozed off for what he hoped would be a ten minute nap... But a reporter (male) simply does not remain in the ephemeral—and figurative—arms of Morpheus when Miss Jane Wyman of the movies is turning on the conversation and her personality.

WE POPPED TO ATTENTION with a start while Miss Wyman was explaining her itinerary to the friends in the adjacent leather settee... Jane had a lot to say, all of it interesting. That her itinerary was covering New England military and naval hospitals, with a beginning Saturday at Camp Myles Standish in Taunton, was interesting... (She and her clowns-in-waiting, the inspired Brothers Ritz)... But the fact that the President had issued what amounts to a command performance for Robert Hope, and that Bob had accepted, was real news, it seemed.

BOSTON GIRLS WHO have been trying their best to keep up with Miss or Mrs. Jones in the matter of nylons (or reasonable facsimile thereof) may sleep more restfully and try less desperately to induce the black marketeers to part—at exorbitant prices—with their sheer hose if they take our word that Miss Wyman, perhaps the most popular "new" star in Hollywood musicals, wears nothing resembling nylons or facsimiles thereof... She wears gunmetal "hose"... But they are applied from a paint box, or by air brush, or however the ladies apply the stuff that doctored most of the public into believing that their legs are encased in silk or nylon or something resembling either material or both.

SUMMERFIELD'S—727 Washington St., Cor. Stuart, Boston

Real Bargain in Sachets

By RUTH MUGGLEBEE

Beauty and Fashion Editor
WHETHER YOU'RE a housekeeper or a career girl, May is spring cleaning time. Perhaps you don't go in for old-fashioned spurge of turning the house inside out and scrubbing it down from attic to cellar. But you'll probably indulge in a bit of bureau drawer and closet straightening—all as part of putting away your winter woollens and getting out your lighter, more colorful suits and blouses and summer cottons.

If you're beauty as well as cleanliness-conscious... you'll make this spring turnout just as much a beauty routine as a housekeeping one. Make this the time to put away winter cosmetics and bring out the summer ones... lighter creams, tingling astringents and colognes, pink-toned make-up instead of winter's reds and purples.

Spring beauty cleaning will give you a chance, too, to take stock of your scant wardrobe. Are you making use of fragrance in all its forms? A very old and traditionally famous fragrance has taken on a new sachet form... and these sachets... in my mind... are an especially happy thought in a cleanup campaign.

WITH EVERYTHING

Because they add the fresh, clean scent of its beknighted odor to all your belongings, place them in your bureau drawers... among gloves and scarves, lingerie, sweaters and blouses. Stick one in your ribbon box... or with your perky spring veiling. And certainly one with your fur piece... in its bag or box.

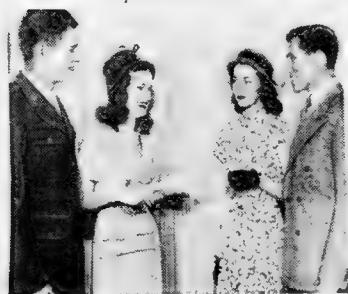

Do you remember how soiled hat bands and linings get in the summer heat? That can mean an unpleasant odor if you're not careful. But you can avoid it easily. Simply place a dainty sachet in each hat box... and see how the scent will envelope you in magic the moment you don your hat! It's a trick you'll want to continue right through the year.

These delightful sachets belong among your linens, too. And not only in the linen closet. Try placing one in your pillow case... or under your pillow when you make up the bed. Remove it at night... but the scent will linger on most pleasantly. Treat your guest bed to a scenting, too.

And they are comparatively inexpensive. Six sachets... gaily emblazoned with the colorful tracings of an attractive gift box... cost only $1. For their price, phone the Beauty Dept., LIBERTY 4000, or write me in care of the Boston Evening American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The Correct Thing

By ELINOR AMES

BE TACTFUL, PLEASE! The details of a previous date, on a hilarious episode from your past, etc., may strike you as a funny story to enliven the evening but may cause embarrassment to the person present who shared the experience with you.

28—Boston American, May 11

Beauty

NOT ONLY on your wrists... at the hollow of your throat and at other strategic places is the use of sachet a charm enhancer... but now in a new sachet form and fragrances with a regal scent... it can add fresh, clean beauty to all your belongings... if you toss a packet here and there among your personals. A grand idea for all-over charm... especially in the hot box.

My Day

By Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt

NEW YORK, Thursday—Removal of the curfew and the racing ban, with the promise also that reconversion will begin in certain industries and that holders of "A" cards may get a little more gasoline in the future, are naturally accepted by everyone as tangible proofs that part of the war burden is being eased.

It must not make us feel for one minute, however, that the necessity for an all-out war effort is any less than it was before the war ended in Europe.

Peace cannot be lasting unless we accept our responsibilities toward the peoples in Europe and in Asia. We have chosen the path of understanding and co-operation between nations to bring about a lasting peace. That really means we must understand our fellow human beings throughout the world and must feel a constant responsibility toward them.

I HAVE a long letter today telling about conditions in India and the need for outside aid. An organization has been formed, and the Quakers are dispensing dried milk, medical supplies and diet-supplementary drugs which are shipped from here at Indian government expense.

This was begun last year at the request of the President's war relief control board upon recommendation of the American mission in New Delhi.

Their first contributions came from the big labor groups in this country and from Gov. Richard Casey of Bengal. Now they must appeal to the people of this country to give month by month what they feel are the absolute necessities for the people of India.

I hope that local community chests throughout our country will be asked to give grants out of their collections, in this way representing the whole people of our communities.

New Beauty in Blacks

By BETTINA BEDWELL

FILMY black dresses, all black with no color added, are among the smartest kind of dresses for summer, when it comes to formal and evening dress styles. There is nothing that looks nicer on a warm evening, and nothing that gives better service.

An ensemble of this kind is sketched. The dress of black, marquisette is pure enchantment, with its full skirt and fitted basque waist, which is crossed by bands of black lace, between rows of stitching. The waist is draped up at the waistline in front and caught under a bow.

Villa Zigmund, who makes some of the most beautiful clothes to be found, put a pink moire jacket with this black filmy dress. The jacket has wide revers and buttons at the front.

Surprise Mother

SURPRISING MOTHER on Mother's Day is the wisest plan of every youngster.

So why not give Mother a complete holiday from making dinner—a gesture that will certainly delight mother. A menu such as the one below is simple enough for the youngest cook to get to the table without dithering every pan in the kitchen or burning any fingers either.

MENU

Meat Loaf Parsley Garnish
Quick-Frozen String Beans
Mashed Potatoes
Shred Tomatoes
Fresh Strawberries Cream
Peanut Brittle Cookies
Coffee

MEAT LOAF

2 cups corn flakes
1 lb. ground meat (half veal, half lean pork)
1 small egg 1 tsp. salt
1/2 tbsp. minced onion
1/4 tsp. sage 1/4 tsp. pepper
1/2 cup chopped celery leaves
1/2 tsp. chopped parsley
1/4 cup ketchup
1/2 cup milk or stock

Crush cereal flakes slightly. Combine remaining ingredients in order given; mix well. Add flakes. Pack into greased 8x4x3-inch loaf pan and bake in moderate oven (375 deg. F.) 1 hour. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

FLUFFY MASHED POTATOES
2 pared medium potatoes (3 1/2 lbs.)

6 tbsps. butter or margarine
1/2 cup scalded milk
Speck pepper

Cook potatoes. Then wash thoroughly, using a potato masher or ricer until no lumps remain. While beating vigorously with the masher, a spoon or fork, gradually add enough of the combined butter and milk to make the potatoes fluffy and creamy. Add pepper and salt to taste. Heap immediately in a heated serving dish, dot with butter and sprinkle with paprika, minced parsley or chives. Makes 6 servings.

If there is time and Sis feels particularly ambitious, perhaps she would like to try this strawberry dessert:

STRAWBERRY SPONGE

2 tsp. plain unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1/4 cup sugar
2 tbsps. lemon juice
1 1/4 cups crushed strawberries
2 egg whites Custard sauce

Soak gelatin in cold water five minutes. Then place over boiling water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add sugar, and stir until sugar is dissolved. Remove from boiling water, add lemon juice and stir mixture into berries. Chill until mixture begins to thicken, then fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Chill until set. Then serve with custard sauce, using the left-over egg yolks. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

PEANUT BRITTLE COOKIES

Cover graham crackers with peanut brittle. Then place in moderate oven of 350 deg. F. until brittle melts. Remove from oven. Cool.

Fashion

SCINTILLATING SYMPHONY in black and white is this unusual Jo Copeland designed dinner frock of simple, straight lines... and with the uncluttered and stunning look so important this season. Fashioned of a new all-acetate rayon fabric, by Brighton... the keyboard model has the new squared shoulders... which form tiny cap sleeves and slits deeply at the front. The spattering of gold sequins and a wide gold belt add extra glamor. Note the one black, one white long gloves... dramatic obligato for the musical fashion achievement.—R. M.

Heart Attack Kills Top Stalin Adviser

NEW YORK, May 11 (INS)—NBC reported today that "Russia's greatest wartime casualty" among leading Moscow personalities "occurred on the first day of peace," with the fatal heart attack of Alexander Sherbakov, one of Stalin's closest collaborators.

Robert Magidoff, NBC commentator, said Sherbakov's death was the result of overwork. Sherbakov held five key posts in the Soviet government.

3 Senators Denounce Ban On U. S. Papers in Reich

By FRANK B. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, May 11 (INS)—The plan to put occupied Germany on a special diet of Office of War Information propaganda, banning U. S. and British publications, was labeled by three Senators today as "bolshevism" and "high schoolish."

Sen. Wheeler (D.) of Montana:

They should have American newspapers to understand democracy. They undoubtedly will have Russian newspapers explaining Communism.

Sen. Johnson (D.) of Colorado:

"Naturally, there must be some censorship, but OWI's laboratory

Sen. Morse (R.) of Oregon:

"Our men died trying to establish the Four Freedoms, one of them is freedom of the press. It would be regrettable if we fail to practice this freedom in our occupation of Germany."

Hot News Due In OPA Probe

Regional OPA officials today predicted "startling disclosures" in connection with gasoline transactions at the office of the Worcester war price and rationing board, following the suspension of a man and woman clerk of the office for lax methods of handling gas applications.

OPA Enforcement Atty. Cornelius J. Monihan said agents had been investigating the Worcester office for more than a month. William E. Hale, acting administrator in the absence of Eldon C. Shoup, said the two clerks had been suspended by William M. Little, board supervisor.

Automotive dealers in Worcester were said to have been the beneficiaries of the alleged loose methods in handling applications for tires as well as gasoline.

Portnoy Victory Empty, Stays In

Although the State Prison sentence imposed on Harry Portnoy, 45, of Hazelton st., Mattapan, on lottery charges was reversed yesterday by the Supreme Court, he failed to gain his freedom today before Judge Nelson P. Brown in Suffolk Superior Court.

Judge Brown said the Supreme Court in its decision ruled against the sentence and not against the indictment on which Portnoy was convicted and ordered him released in $300 personal recognizance while the Attorney General's office decided its policy.

Asst. Atty. Gen. William S. Kinney agreed the defendant should be admitted to bail, but pointed out he had not paid a $2000 fine, imposed in April, 1943, on a conspiracy indictment.

Judge Brown agreed and a warrant was issued under which Portnoy was taken to Charles st. jail to be field until the fine was paid.

Judge Brown denied a motion of Portnoy's attorney, Francis J. Monahan, that the fine be remitted on the ground the conspiracy indictment was not before him in today's action.

DON'T BE A DRIP!

New Way of Baking Wonder Bread Stops Fillings Dripping from Sandwiches

Thanks to a revolutionary new baking method, you can now get bread with no big holes that leak sandwich fillings on shirts or dresses. Compare a slice from the middle of new Wonder Bread with ordinary bread—see the amazing difference!

For Extra Energy

Few of us realize that one half of every slice of Wonder Bread we eat is available for energy! So if you have trouble getting white potatoes or white rice—energy and body-building foods—serve more Wonder Bread!

Science now shows that Wonder Bread, on an all-round basis, is actually superior to white potatoes and white rice—considering these important food values—carbohydrates, proteins, minerals and vitamins.

Thus, for energy, for body building and repair, for development of bones and teeth, Wonder Bread helps better all around than either white rice or potatoes!

And Wonder Bread is doubly fresh—fresh when you buy it—because slow-baked for lasting freshness: Baked 13% longer than many ordinary kinds!

So ask your grocer for Wonder Bread today—it's energy-charged to give you extra energy.

U. S. Takes Beer and Candy From POWs

By AUSTEN LAKE

THIS IS WHAT I CALL "HARD BOILED." Here's a hunk of news fresh from Washington that should brighten the hearts of our soul-sick, nerve-frazzled, bone-lean combat soldiery on the German front. It reads: "After next Tuesday German war prisoners in the U. S. will no longer be able to buy beer, cigars, candy and cookies in prison camp canteens."

Austen Lake

That's treating 'em rough! If there was an outstanding, damaging factor to our fighting men's morale it was the benign gentility with which we treated U. S. held German PWs. Our guys read authenticated stories of how we transported these Krauts in plush coaches, fed them standard dining car menus, kept them in cosy stove-heated barracks, gave them recreational playthings, supplied them the full garrison meat rations and generally treated them as favored house guests.

That really burned our guys up! I've seen many a stubble-chinned, gaunt U. S. infantryman sit pop-eyed with fury after reading some month-old account of our PW country-club camps, of how we served 'em grub on our luxury transports (oh, yes, we did!) Or how tolerantly we handled their prison camp mutinies and hunger strikes, or arbitrated their fancied wrongs. And how fat and sassy they were!

Where the Red Cross Parcels Went!

ALL THE WHILE OUR GUYS were eating pasteboard rations—oh, nourishing enough, but tasting like granulated sawdust. They didn't kick about that, nor about the blood sweat and filth, or the death and wounds. That was part of war! And I won't even mention herein the uncounted instances of German atrocities toward our own prisoners. But among the many outrages was that the Germans for years had stolen our Red Cross food parcels and diverted them from our imprisoned men to their own military or civilian use (oh, yes, they did!).

Here's one for you. I have others! On April 18 at Burgstadt, near Czechoslovakia, Col. Creighton Abrams found that 20,000 Red Cross parcels had been sold or given by town authorities to civilians. I was there! So with characteristic vigor he issued a dictum: "If any U. S. Red Cross articles are found in possession of any German civilian after 1 o'clock today, the penalty will be instant and severe." For if I know Abrams, and I DO, he wouldn't have hesitated to burn the offender's house about his ears. Abrams didn't compromise!

Long before the deadline the people of Burgstadt delivered upwards of 20 tons of Red Cross foodstuffs, ranging from cans of concentrated milk to chocolate and tinned meats. They brought them discreetly wrapped in newspaper and, after laying them on the growing mound, departed sheepishly. And that little incident, my generous American friends, was merely one in uncounted others. Not that I blame the American Red Cross, which was dependent on its international liaison and the integrity of the Germans! Our Red Cross carried out its end of the bargain up to the boundary limits.

So that was the day, too, when I accompanied a combat command officer when he grabbed the local kreisleiter (Nazi regional leader) named Tronja, who was one of those political body-masters with life and death control. We caught Herr Tronja in civvies preparing his getaway. He had a mauler pistol on his table and—more damaging—two packages of Chesterfield cigarettes. My witness to this incident is Lt. Col. Harold Cohen of Spartansburg, S. C.

What an RC Officer Said

WHERE DID HE GET THESE AMERICAN cigarettes? Tronja said "a townsman had given them to him." Were they from U. S. Red Cross parcels? Tronja said he did not know. So we hauled him to the nearby PW cage presided over by a very tough U. S. MP who had been a Milwaukee boxer. And the captain told the MP sergeant who his latest "guest" was and showed him the tell tale cigarettes. I draw a tactful screen over what ensued very swiftly and effectively. But I assure you that Herr Tronja began his incarceration a very unhappy man.

Now read this chunk of steel-fisted, stern action by Washington, dated today, "The Second Service Command announces that, as soon as canteen stocks are exhausted and in no event later than May 15, all beer, candy, cookies, cigarettes and cola drinks will be removed from prison camp canteens."

Hemstitch my snuggies, there's harsh realism for you! I seriously question, from the evidence I collected while with the Third Army, that more than a moderate percentage of our Red Cross parcels every reached their intended destination. Some did, but in such small numbers that they were usually divided between from four to ten men. The rest? Most went to fatten the residents of the German Reich and give them sinews and strength for more war. Take testimony from any returned Allied prisoner! Or, better yet, take it from the ranking RC officer who told me in Paris (I have his name): "The Germans had a lot of cute tricks. Sometimes just before moving men from a prison camp to a distant one, they'd hand out three or four RC parcels to each. Then they'd walk the prisoners at an exhausting pace till the men threw away everything, even their extra clothing. The Germans then picked up the food and confiscated it."

Or they'd march prisoners on a long road hike and halt them for "setting-up exercises." When the prisoners laid down their parcels the Germans claimed them as "cast-offs." That's only a small part of the RC man's tale.

So I suggest that our warmhearted, fraternal spirited WP commandants in America be obliged to spend a month in one of the German liquidation camps, like Buckenwald, under presurround Nazi conditions. That would cure their warmheartedness! They'd come back like curly wolves!

Terranova Is Choice to Beat Dell Orto Tonight

By JACK CONWAY

PHIL TERRANOVA, former world's featherweight champion, will go shooting for the fistic stars again tonight when he clashes with Vince Dell Orto in a 10-round bout at a Goodwin A. C. show at the Garden. If Terranova can win from Dell Orto, he will be able to secure a return tussle with Sal Bartolo of East Boston, NBA title holder.

Terranova believes he can beat Bartolo, but to gain the rich championship match he first must get by Dell Orto.

There is already some quiet bidding for a Terranova-Bartolo bout. The Goodwin Club would like the match, while Jack Kearns believes that the attraction Phil Terranova should go to Chicago.

Dell Orto can upset the plans of Terranova and of the promoters. Dell Orto is a good boxer and a hard hitter.

"I know Terranova is planning on a title bout with Bartolo," said Dell Orto today. "I can upset his program by winning at the Garden tonight. I have everything to win, and very little to lose. This gives me a decided advantage. I can parade from my corner and toss punches in reckless style."

"Terranova, on the other hand, will carry a mental hazard into the ring. He knows he must win to get the Bartolo match. While Terranova is worrying about the Bartolo bout, I'll beat him."

The speculative element has installed Terranova a 10 to 6 favorite.

BOXING HAS made rapid strides in Mexico in recent years, and some first class talent has been developed. Charley Johnston will show two Mexican boxers in eight-round bouts on tonight's card.

Nava Esparza of Mexico, who defeated Sammy Mamone, will oppose Vic Costa of New York, who won from Jerry Darby in a bout here.

George Morelia of Mexico will collide with Ralph Walton of Montreal. Morelia has engaged in some of his best bouts against Willie Joyce of Delaware. He has one victory to his credit over Joyce, while he also held the latter to a draw. Joyce won in the other bout.

Brookline. This writer knew Sam once over a long span of years, and always had the greatest admiration for him.

Sam did much of his promoting in the small cities and towns around the New England circuit. He staged boxing and wrestling shows and was very successful in his line. He developed more young talent than anyone else. Sam had the happy faculty of seeing athletic possibilities in youngsters. He then did not overmatch them. He gave them a chance to develop their natural abilities.

At times Price would move promotions in Florida and to other distant places. His skill and patience, backed by a thorough knowledge of promotions, enabled him to succeed. Sam was very proud of his two sons, one a lieutenant in the Navy, and the other a student at M. I. T.

While boxing and wrestling were Sam's businesses, betting on horses was his pleasure. He usually could be found at one of the local tracks when they were in operation.

"I usually only bet $2 on a race," Sam once said to me. "I never get hurt betting, but I do enjoy seeing the thoroughbreds in action."

In wrestling, Sam was associated with Paul Bowser, while Jimmy Meade was his partner in many of his boxing ventures.

Sam was at one time manager of Andy Martin of the South End who was one of the world's leading featherweights when at the peak of his form. Martin would have lifted the title from Andre Routis of France if the latter had met him. Routis, however, avoided a meeting with Martin.

Weather Jinx Follows Tribe

After sitting out the eighth rainy day of the season, the Braves hoped to get back into action today against the Pittsburgh Pirates at Braves Field, but were foiled when cold weather and wet grounds forced postponement. The Braves and Cubs will meet tomorrow in a Ladies' Day single game. Realizing that on the last three times he has announced that "Red" Barrett would pitch, it had rained, Manager Bob Coleman sidetracked Charles Francis and planned to send Al Javery to the mound. He may stick to the same plan tomorrow.

Javery has established a unique record this spring . . . a win, a loss and a tie. On his first start, he was shelled by the Giants, yielding five hits and being charged with as many runs, in two and one-third innings. Then after a 12 day lay-off, "Jave" came back and shut out the Phillies 1 to 0, and last Sunday he got a draw with the Giants, when the game was washed in the seventh inning with the score 1-1.

The Cubs open a two-day three-game series tomorrow. The game will start at 2, while Sunday's double-header will get underway at 1:30.

Sox Fight to Keep Out of Cellar

By HUCK FINNEGAN

CLEVELAND May 11—Fighting to keep out of the cellar in their final game with the eighth place Indians here today, the Red Sox can trace their plight directly to weak hitting. Their infield work has been sloppy, yes, and their base-running amateurish, but these things wouldn't be half so noticeable if the 3-4-5 hitters were doing their share. Actually, over the last 10 games, the pitching has been the highlight of the Red Sox play. In other years it was just the reverse.

Of course there is no Cronin or Fox, Williams or Pesky, Doerr or Taber to set the pace, but fellows like Metkovich, Johnson and Fox took a load off the pitchers in '44, and if they were doing it this year the Sox would be battling in the first division.

Scan the Sox batting averages: Newsome—ab 65, hits 19, average .293; Steiner, 64-20—312; Metkovich, 65-16—246; Johnson, 65-16—246; Fox, 65-18—262; Tobin, 49-11—225; Culberson, 65-16—232.

Now glimpse at the runs batted in: Newsome 5, Steiner 5, Metko 9, Johnson 3, Fox 7, Tobin 2, Culberson 4. And the home runs: Johnson 3, Culby 1, Steiner 1.

Yombardi alone has made as many home runs as the combined Red Sox and has driven in more runs (21) than any two men on the club. Neiman has made four homers and has 17 RBI. Rookie Derry has 15 RBI.

It ain't fair to the pitching, McGee. When you leave 11 men on as the Sox did against Newsome, and 10 men on as they did against Niggeling, and nine men against Dubiel, it takes more than good pitching to pull a club through.

A shake-up in the batting order might put some of the boys on their toes. It did the trick in Philadelphia after the Sox had lost eight straight. Or the insertion of Polly, Christopher or Bucher might scare some of the most flagrant offenders into taking their cuts and not stand there watching third strikes sail by with men on.

Cronin planned no change in the batting order as Rex Cecil toed the mound against Al Smith today. But if the Sox are in the cellar by nightfall, there may be some changes made on the boat trip to Detroit tonight.

Ferriss pitches the opener in Detroit tomorrow, and you can bet Benton or Newhouse will be waiting for him . . . Night games in St. Louis next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday . . . Cleveland can take their ball players, or leave them alone. Mackiewicz, Ross and Meyer made their first appearance in Cleveland flannels Wednesday as the Indians won 2-1. Yet not a ripple of applause greeted them as they stepped to the plate. Ross set up both runs with neat sacrifice hits, Meyer drove home the tying run. And to think how Boston cheered Babe Barna . . . Best crowd of the season here was $500 at a Sunday doubleheader . . . Cleveland experimented with Cullenbine, Rothe and Wheeler at third before getting Ross from Detroit. He'll fill the bill.

Gansett Waits Opening

By DAVE WILSON

PROVIDENCE, May 11—Ty Shea, racing secretary at Narragansett Park, hopes to attract enough entries for tomorrow's inaugural purse, $3000 added, to split the race. Entries so far include Good Gang, High Fox, Merry Sunshine, Spangled Game, Bar Willow, Zacabrand and Don Miller.

The weatherman predicts more rain and tomorrow's nine-race card may be contested over an "off" racing strip. Despite travel conditions, many fans will journey from New York and other distant points for the opening.

The telephone switchboard at the track is literally snowed under with requests for reserved seats and boxes. The same heavy demand is being made for hotel rooms in Providence.

Mortimer Mahony, the mutuels manager, arrived. His son Jack, and chief assistant, William Jubb, Walter Bruke and Izzy Aaronson were on the grounds.

Some of the boys are willing to wager that Gansett handles $1,000,000 or more Saturday, providing the weather is clear and the track is fast. A new record opening day is expected in some quarters. Horace Wade, the track's announcer, put in his appearance. The group of thoroughbreds stabled at Narragansett is the finest in years. W. W. Adams' stable and the Audwill Farm string arrived from Suffolk Downs. Frank Ryan, the popular director of public relations at the Downs, is planning to take in the opening here.

Joe Stevens, of the famous catering family, has been at Gansett for several days. Jockey Herb Claggett was due in sometime today. Mose Shapiro, the well-known trainer, says that he was so happy over the racing ban being lifted that he failed to feel any pain when the dentist removed some of his molars. Mose adds that he hopes he feels just as well tomorrow when he resumes grappling with the "iron-men."

One horseman who was forced to sell his stock during the ban, looks at the resumption of racing in this manner: "Shucks, I'm tickled pink that racing is back. All I need is a winner and a handy telephone to get back into the horse business." Steward John Turner got in from his home in Baltimore. Jockey Willie (Even Money) Carroll is writing a race track story. Agent Barry Brouse is seeking the opportunity of making the riding engagement for Johnny (Old Folks) Viary. Willie Varren, one of the better riders at Mexico City, is on the grounds.

Most all of the jockeys at Narragansett have been galloping horses daily and are fit and ready. Peanuts McCadden, the leading rider at one meeting at Thistledown last year, is a newcomer among the jocks.

Narragansett is capable of housing 1050 horses, and it may be filled to capacity before the middle of next week. Two carloads of horses are en route from Churchill Downs, and other thoroughbreds are on their way from Maryland. W. H. (Bill) Hartman and his string of six horses pulled in from Mexico City.

3 Defend Titles In N. E. Games

Three defending titlists will be making their places in the New England Intercollegiate track championships tomorrow morning and afternoon at Briggs Field, Cambridge, with M. I. T. favored to repeat for the crown on its home field.

Pole vaulter Wright of M. I. T., hurdler Ed Petrella, Rhode Island, and miler Duncan Blanchard, Ithaca, will be trying to make it two straight in their specialties. Trials in this annual meet will start at 10 in the morning, with the finals to take over at 1:45.

TODAY'S ROLL OF HONOR

"There is no sanctuary for brave men, danger allures them as the moon the tide; what they have dared they will dare once again though they lose all else in the world beside." —(A. G. Herbertson.)

The War Department today announced, through the Office of War Information, the names of 146 casualties of the European and Pacific regions residing in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Maine.

The list includes 23 DEAD, 98 WOUNDED IN ACTION and 21 MISSING IN ACTION.

Also announced were the names of eight men from Massachusetts and Rhode Island LIBERATED from German prison camps.

Next in kin in all cases have been kept informed directly by the War Department of any change in status. In case of divergence between this list and information sent to next of kin, the last War Department telegram or letter to next of kin is the final authority on the status of a soldier.

The Navy Department, also through OWI, announced 19 casualties of the Navy and Marine Corps residing in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Maine.
